

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. That law has made my time at home so much more peaceful. It has also made my work time more profitable since I work at home. My week day alone could easily be interrupted three or five times a day by unwanted calls. It is so much better now. Please don't let it change.